Private Fees December 2016

A – Private sick line	£10
B – Private Prescription	£15
C – Forms and more complex certifications (Dependent upon complexity and time)	£25 - £65
These include:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Accident/sickness insurance certification – short certification of incapacity without examination for patient to claim under accident/sickness insurance• Freedom from infection certification, e.g. for school, travel or employment• Validation of private medical insurance (PMI) claim form, to support a claim for benefit in connection with private medical insurance, or completion of a ‘pre-treatment form• School fees• Holiday insurance certificates
D – Extract from Records (Dependent on whether these are from your electronic or paper record and on number of pages copied)	£10 – 50
E – Report on a pro-forma No examination	£90
F – Written report without examination Providing a detailed opinion and statement on the condition of the patient	£110
G – Comprehensive clinical examination Including report, certification or completion of necessary forms	£165

This includes:

- Accident/sickness insurance – to support a claim for payment of benefit under accident/sickness insurance policy
- Employment – for pre-employment or on an employee, requested by an employer
- Fitness for education – to attend university, college, teacher and nurses training and, for dentists, completion of the form of Application for first registration of a dentist issued by the GDC

These fees are for services rendered to patients of the patient which are not part of the GMS contract (i.e. non-NHS work). This type of work utilises staff time which would otherwise be spent on ‘core’ NHS duties. These fees are based on recommendations from the BMA dated April 2008. Fees cover medical staff time, administrative staff time and business overheads.
